

Branislav Miškovič

Branislav Miškovič is a graduate of the University of Economics in Prague and holds a CEMS degree in International Management jointly from Copenhagen Business School and the University of Economics in Prague.

Before joining the EP group, he worked for three years at JP Morgan in London and completed several internships at Google.

In 2013 he joined Energetický a průmyslový holding and subsequently held several positions in mergers and acquisitions within EP Corporate Group, focusing on investments in the retail, e-commerce, media, energy and logistics segments. As part of his role, Branislav Miškovič sits on a number of boards of EP Equity Investment Group subsidiaries, particularly in the ecommerce, retail and media sectors.